Lady Georgiana

by Taylor Paige

The following packet is a novel study for Lady Georgiana, the third book in the Savantor Spies series. There is a page for each chapter of the book to offer flexibility. Some students may take several days to read a chapter before completing the corresponding worksheet, and some students may do better doing one chapter and one worksheet per day.

There are various types of questions and activities including questions about the text, vocabulary, synonyms, antonyms, cause and effect, idioms, writing, and critical thinking questions. As always, biblical thinking is incorporated in the lessons.

All answer keys will be at the end. Enjoy your reading!

Check out my store Walk by Faith for more novel studies.
(There is a link on the last page.)

Whether you're teaching in a classroom, or running a homeschool,
I hope your school year goes great! Enjoy!

Chapter 10. Alterations

Cause and Effect

To find out why something happened, we have to look at the cause.

Lucy was angry with Georgiana (Grace), so Georgiana helped in the laundry shed instead.

cause: why something happened

effect: what happened as a result of the cause.

cause example: Georgiana (Grace) had been promoted, and Lucy was jealous and angry.

effect example: Lucy wouldn't accept help, so Georgiana found other work to do.

In each box is an effect. Write a cause of each effect.

C:

E: Mrs. Stowe and Rachel told Grace to get her cheer back.

C:

E: Mrs. Stowe knew that Georgiana was the daughter of the woman she had betrayed and helped harm years earlier.

C:

E: Georgiana was awakened by Clara, who was upset and looking for her sister, and Georgiana would be needed as a housemaid.

C:

E: Georgiana (Grace) was glad to have Lillianne and Clara walking on either side of her to help her get up the stairs.

C:

E: Clara took a chemise from Lucy's bag and tossed it to Lillianne.

C:

E: Mrs. St. Ives gave Georgiana (Grace) money and offered her a position in her own household.

Predict: Do you think the new stable hand, Cecil Jacobson, is really Mr. Jacob Sisley?
Explain your prediction.

---

Opinion: Which do you think would be more difficult: being blind or being mute? Why?

Chapter 11. Relentless

An antonym is a word with the opposite meaning as another word.
Draw a line to match the words on the left with an antonym on the right.

distracted •	• indifference
irritation •	• neat
empathy •	• attentive
disheveled •	• pleasure
despondent •	• cheerful

It was time to go home, and they needed Mrs. Stowe to go with them.
Number the events from 1 to 8 in the order they happened in chapter 11.
You may look back in the book if you need to.

— Later that day, after church, Georgiana, Lillianne, and Cecil waited for Uncle Ethan to arrive. When he did, he said that he and the others still couldn't figure out who the guilty man was.

— Once they were in Mrs. Stowe's room, they asked the housekeeper to come with them to help Lord Gabriel, Lord Greenswright, and Elizabeth. Mrs. Stowe agreed to come and help.

— Lillianne came outside to get Georgiana for breakfast, and she saw that Georgiana had read her letters. Lillianne told Georgiana they would get Mrs. Stowe to leave with them.

— Georgiana had received two notes – one from Cecil and one from her mother. The note from her mother told her that it was time to come home, and that Cecil would escort her.

— As part of the plan, Cecil and Lillianne left during the night. Georgiana (Grace) woke up and pretended to be surprised that Lillianne (Ellie) was gone.

— While talking to Mrs. Stowe, Georgiana figured out she was her aunt. Georgiana convinced her aunt to return home with her and ask for forgiveness.

— Georgiana was taken to tell Mrs. Stowe about Lillianne leaving (even though she already knew the plan), and it was then that Mrs. Stowe told Georgiana she couldn't go with her.

— After supper, Lillianne, Georgiana, and Cecil headed up to Mrs. Stowe's room, and on the way, Cecil tripped. Georgiana figured out there was something wrong with Cecil's vision.

Georgiana has to use other ways to communicate besides talking.

What are two ways you can communicate without talking? Be specific. (Waving means good-by.)

1. Gabriel, Georgiana's father, had been falsely accused of murder. Upset by the news of her father, Georgiana wrote letters to Grandmamma Mercy and Aunt Victoria to tell them the news and ask for prayers.
2. After a night filled with nightmares, Georgiana decided to go to Grandfather's library to see if she could find any information on laws that might protect her father.
3. After hours of searching, with two-year-old Octavia helping, Georgiana felt defeated. Carolina burst into the room and told Georgiana that Mother wanted to see her because she had received a letter from Grandfather (Lord Greenswright).
4. Mother read from the letter that Lord Greenswright wanted Georgiana to travel to London and disguise herself as a servant to see if she could figure out who the widow was, so they could, in turn, figure out who the murdered man was.
5. Georgiana's mother didn't like the idea very much, but she would feel better about Georgiana doing the assignment if Lillianne did it with her and if Uncle Ethan could keep an eye on both girls and maybe even pretend to be their father. They had to wait to get permission from William, but Georgiana agreed to take on the assignment.

Chapter 10. Alterations

Answer Key

Cause and Effect

To find out why something happened, we have to look at the cause.

Lucy was angry with Georgiana (Grace), so Georgiana helped in the laundry shed instead.

cause: why something happened

effect: what happened as a result of the cause.

cause example: Georgiana (Grace) had been promoted, and Lucy was jealous and angry.

effect example: Lucy wouldn't accept help, so Georgiana found other work to do.

In each box is an effect. Write a cause of each effect.
Answers may vary slightly. Accept reasonable answers.

C: Georgiana (Grace) had been having a depressed attitude while she worked. Mrs. St. Ives was concerned about Grace and she expressed her concern to Mrs. Stowe.

E: Mrs. Stowe and Rachel told Grace to get her cheer back.

C: Georgiana had written in a letter to Mrs. Stowe that the woman who had brought her and Lillianne to the house was her mother, Lady Elizabeth Etheridge.

E: Mrs. Stowe knew that Georgiana was the daughter of the woman she had betrayed and helped harm years earlier.

E: Georgiana was awakened by Clara, who was upset and looking for her sister, and Georgiana would be needed as a housemaid.

C: Georgiana (Grace) had been assisting the St. Ives and had new duties as a housemaid, which included much more walking, and much more stair climbing. She was tired.

E: Georgiana (Grace) was glad to have Lillianne and Clara walking on either side of her to help her get up the stairs.

C: Lillianne's chemise was missing, and Clara knew that Lucy had taken it, thinking it was Georgiana's (Grace's).

E: Clara took a chemise from Lucy's bag and tossed it to Lillianne.

C: Georgiana (Grace) had done a good job of taking care of Mr. and Mrs. St. Ives.

E: Mrs. St. Ives gave Georgiana (Grace) money and offered her a position in her own household.

Predict: Do you think the new stable hand, Cecil Jacobson, is really Mr. Jacob Sisley?

It was time to go home, and they needed Mrs. Stowe to go with them.
Number the events from 1 to 8 in the order they happened in chapter 11.
You may look back in the book if you need to.

- 3 Later that day, after church, Georgiana, Lillianne, and Cecil waited for Uncle Ethan to arrive. When he did, he said that he and the others still couldn't figure out who the guilty man was.
- 5 Once they were in Mrs. Stowe's room, they asked the housekeeper to come with them to help Lord Gabriel, Lord Greenswright, and Elizabeth. Mrs. Stowe agreed to come and help.
- 2 Lillianne came outside to get Georgiana for breakfast, and she saw that Georgiana had read her letters. Lillianne told Georgiana they would get Mrs. Stowe to leave with them.
- 1 Georgiana had received two notes – one from Cecil and one from her mother. The note from her mother told her that it was time to come home, and that Cecil would escort her.
- 6 As part of the plan, Cecil and Lillianne left during the night. Georgiana (Grace) woke up and pretended to be surprised that Lillianne (Ellie) was gone.
- 8 While talking to Mrs. Stowe, Georgiana figured out she was her aunt. Georgiana convinced her aunt to return home with her and ask for forgiveness.
- 7 Georgiana was taken to tell Mrs. Stowe about Lillianne leaving (even though she already knew the plan), and it was then that Mrs. Stowe told Georgiana she couldn't go with her.
- 4 After supper, Lillianne, Georgiana, and Cecil headed up to Mrs. Stowe's room, and on the way, Cecil tripped. Georgiana figured out there was something wrong with Cecil's vision.

Epilogue

Answer Key

You finished the book. Great Job!

Let's go over the details of the book in this mini book report.

Title: Lady Georgiana

Author: Taylor Paige

Main Character: Lady Georgiana

Setting:

Time or time period:

summer/June 1841

Place:

London; Greenswright Estate

In four or five sentences, summarize the main idea of the book.

Answers may vary but should include details about a mute girl named Georgiana who worked for her family's spy ring. When Georgiana's father was framed for murder, Georgiana and her cousin, Lillianne, worked as servants in the Pelham household to try to discover who the widow was. The girls soon discovered that Mrs. Stowe, the housekeeper, was the widow, and she had once helped men (her husband) kidnap Elizabeth, Georgiana's mother. Mrs. Stowe, who was Lord Greenswright's daughter and Julian's twin sister, finally agreed to go with the girls, ask for forgiveness from her family, and help free her older brother, Gabriel. Georgiana learned a lot about trusting God, forgiving others, and being thankful for those whose lives are more difficult than hers.
